

Job Vacancy Survey

You are completing this for CSO (Central Statistics Office)

The Job Vacancy Survey is a follow up to the Earnings, Hours & Employment Costs Survey. It enables the Central Statistics Office to compile the number of job vacancies for the purpose of monitoring labour market activity. This survey requests the number of job vacancies on the last working day of the quarter.

Statutory Basis: This survey is conducted under the Statistics (Labour Costs Surveys) Order 2023 (S.I. No. 113 of 2023) and Statistics (Job Vacancy Survey) Order 2021 (S. I. No. 107), made under the Statistics Act, 1993.

The information you provide will be treated as strictly confidential in accordance with Section 33 of the Statistics Act, 1993 and with EU law. Information will be used for statistical purposes only.

Number of job vacancies as at last working day of {{Survey_period}}

You are asked to indicate the number of job vacancies in your organisation as at end of the quarter. A job vacancy is defined as a post (newly created, unoccupied or about to become vacant) which the employer intends to fill either immediately or in the near future.

For the purpose of this survey, job vacancies that are only open to candidates from within the enterprise should be excluded.
